period. It has been believed that the would oppose it.

Snyder's announcement was in the form of a printed report on the 2001-mile trip of the Indian affairs committee of the house last summer. The report was sent to the clerk of the house following a call upon Snyder by a delegation of Osages.

To Aid Conservation.

Snyder said that he is convinced that in the interest of conservation of oil and gas and in the interests of all the people in this country including the Indians, that there should be an extension of this agreement for another 25 years.

ment for another 25 years.

Chairman Snyder also recommended that an arrangement be made so that the bona fide surface owner shall be compensated for any less by reason of the extension. He also recommended that all Osage Indians of less than half Indian blood shall be immediately declared citizens and come into possession of all their rights in the leases and rights hereafter accruing to the

It was further recommended by Snyder that at least 50 per cent of the money that accures from the leases and royalties, or from other conress to the full blood Osage In-diana shall be impounded for their future benefit.

Woman Sues Oil Man for Jewels Used for 'Front'

Special to The World.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 16.—
Miss Ada Pullent giving her address as the Hotel Muchlebach, filed suit in the circuit court today to recover $3,550 from Frank Thompson, oil promoter, a frequent guest at the Muchlebach.

The sum represents the unpaid balance on jewels Miss Pullen al-leges she entrusted to the care of some time when he asked her last becomber to give him her jewefs. It was agreed, the petition states, he could have the jewels to use as an aset in his business and that they would be returned to Miss Pullen later.

Miss Pullen alleges after Thompson got possession of the jewels he avoided her. Eventually, she states, she met him and de-manded the return of her property. He expressed regret that he could not return them, but said he would pay the cash vajue. Thompson, the petition alleges, had converted the jewels line cash. When she was told they had here converted into cash, when cash. When she was told they had been converted into eash, she demanded the money.

Thompson is president of the Mid-Continent Oil, Gas and Refining company of this city. He denied the jewels story and says he never heard of the woman and that it is a plain case of black-

It was understood she was to be permitted to return to Ardmore, Okla, where it is charged she fired the shot November 21 that caused Hamon's death November 26. Her attorneys expected her to arrive here from the vicinity of El Paso. Texas. Preparations had been made to make her submission to the law as convenient as possible and it was understood she would leave the train somewhere west of Fort Worth and be driven into the city in an automobile.

Once here she was to be interviewed by the law firm and then permitted to resume her journey.
